PEACELAND DIRECTIONAL DRILLING MIDGET AA

AWARD WINNERS

TOP FORWARD

MASON KYLLO

"Mason played a large role within our hockey club. He carried himself in a professional manner at all times. He would come to the rink with a smile on his face. He was a strong silent leader who led by his ability to compete game in and game out. Mason's progression throughout the year led to him earning an opportunity to play with the AAA club throughout playoffs."

TOP DEFENCEMAN

BEN SCHMIDT

"Benjamin captained the Midget AA team in his 3rd and final year with the club. Ben logged a lot of minutes throughout the year. His desire to work on his game included numerous hours away from the rink training. Benjamin was relied upon to play in all situations, and through his experience he was able to hone his skills and become a work horse on the back-end."

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

TYLER BUCHBERGER

"Tyler had a strong season and played with consistency throughout the year. Tyler provided an offensive punch and his individual skills vastly improved throughout the year. Tyler is very passionate about being able to play. For an individual with a smaller stature he could take two quick strides and be at high speed beating numerous d-men wide and stepping into a quick snap-shot; beating goalies quite frequently."

MOST DEDICATED

DENON BAMBER

"Denon wore his heart on his sleeve. He is very competitive and determined to succeed. He is willing to step out of his comfort zone and his passion for the game is second to none. Denon put a lot of extra time in with off-ice training and was fully committed to the AA Team."

UNSUNG HERO

AIDEN BROWN

"Aiden was a pleasant surprise, he continued to put forth a strong 'Team Frist Mentality', he would go out of his way to ensure all guys were a part of the team even if it meant he had to sacrifice his own playing time. Aiden played a large role in our offense throughout the year as well as holding the team together and united. He elevated the team and was a strong motivator inside the dressing room."

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER

JAYDON GORDEY

"Jaydon played a key role providing high offensive ability each and every game. Jaydon could elevate his game and take control when needed. Jaydon led by example, and pushed himself to compete each time he stepped on the ice."

TOP ACADEMIC

CAILE MENARD

"Caile continued to play a high level of hockey and was able to manage his studies effectively. Caile is very dedicated and passionate towards his studies. He would manage his time effectively to ensure all of his work was completed to the best of his abilities."
